

Questions for Small Groups

(1 Corinthians)

1. After completing your study of this week's chapter, write down something that stood out to you from the chapter. It can be a key theme, a verse that encouraged you, or a truth that you learned or were reminded of.
2. What can we learn from this chapter about the Corinthian church and their situation?
3. What was the main point of the chapter/passages before this week's reading? List some logical or thematic connections to this week's chapter/passages if there are any.
4. Take some time to notice the breaks/sections of the chapter. In each section what is the main point that Paul is making? If possible, list one or two passages that support the major points/themes in this chapter.

5. What do we learn about God and His character from this chapter?

6. What are some of the ways that this passage challenges or confirms your understanding?

7. How does this passage call you to change your life?