Washroom Procedures:

Parents, we encourage you to help your child use the washroom facilities prior to programs. However, if necessary, ministry personnel will escort preschool/kindergarten aged children in groups of 2 or more children whenever possible. We ask that parents communicate with ministry personnel regarding their child's ability to use the washroom independently and what type of assistance might be required.

Program Check-in / Dismissal

Programs for preschool & kindergarten children, including Sunday School and Junior Church will use a check-in/check-out system. Children are only to be released to their parent or another designated individual, as indicated in writing.

At program dismissal, your child is only to be released to you (parent(s)/guardian(s) named above) or to one of the following individuals:
